NARRATIVE
409th INFANTRY REGIMENT
FROM 1 TO 10 MAY 1945

The opening of May, the month in which Victory in Europe came, found troops of the 409th pouring across the Austrian border in an advance from Mittenwald (D6577), the last town on the German side of the border, to Scharnitz (D6671), the first town on the Austrian side. The 1st Battalion was in the lead with the 5d and 2d, respectively, following. Scharnitz was cleared at 1500 on 1 May by the 1st Battalion following scattered resistance including much sniper fire. Advance was held up in the vicinity by an antitank ditch, road blocks and blown bridges, but continued following clearing of the town and by the end of the period, leading elements were reported to be nearing Seefeld (D6164).

The second day of May found the 1st Battalion continuing its advance seizing the two towns of Auland (D6162) and Reith (D6261). The 2d Battalion reconnoitered routes to the southwest and the 5d Battalion remained in the vicinity of Seefeld. Zirl (D6558) was cleared at 1030 after slight resistance, and advance continued toward the east. Further to the east, several flak wagons were silenced on the high ground to the north in the vicinity of (D6858). Late in the afternoon, Innsbruck (7657) capitulated and 1st Battalion troops, mounted on tanks, moved into the city at 1943. Troops of the 2d Battalion captured the bridge at Telfs (D5261) intact, and proceeded east, clearing the road to Zirl. The 2d Battalion followed the 1st Battalion into Innsbruck.

Narrative, CT 409, 1-10 May 45 (Cont'd)

The 3d Battalion moved from Seefeld into Innsbruck and was reported at Weer (D9563) continuing east toward Division left boundary as the period ended. The 3d Battalion had formed a Task Force and was moving eastward to Maurach (E0572) with the mission of contacting elements of the XXI Corps. A patrol of Infantry and tanks from the 3d Battalion continued eastward and at 2300 on 4 May contacted elements of the XXI Corps at Worgl (E2685). The 1st and 2d Battalions assembled in the vicinity of Innsbruck where the Regimental CP was located.

On 5 May the 3d Battalion moved from Maurach to Schwaz (E0068) closing in its new area as the period ended. Reconnaissance elements of the 3d Battalion returned to parent organizations after accomplishing their mission of contacting elements of the XXI Corps. All of the other units of the Combat Team assembled in the vicinity of Innsbruck and remained, awaiting further orders.

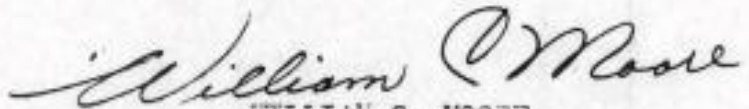

Regimental CP was moved to the vicinity of Vomp (D6898) on 6 May and opened there at 1500. Pursuant to Operations Instruction 91, Headquarters 103d Infantry Division, the 1st and 2d Battalions moved to new areas that same day, the 1st Battalion moving to Hall (D850602) and the 2d Battalion to Wattens (D618916). The 3d Battalion remained in Schwaz. The following day the 88d Chemical Mortar Battalion which was attached to the 409th moved to the vicinity of Vomp. The Regiment made plans for the police and garrison of the area assigned to it. Road blocks were established, passes checked and guards assigned to vital installations. On 9 May troops of the 1st Battalion and Cannon Company
