NARRATIVE

On 7 November 44 our CP was located at Charmois, France. The Regimental Commander issued Operation Instructions No. 1 to effect the relief of the 30th Infantry Regiment troops by the 410th Infantry as ordered by the CG, 6th Corps.

A motor march was conducted as ordered and 30th Infantry Regiment elements were relieved as expeditiously as the tactical situation would permit.

CO 410th Infantry assumed command of the area at 0900 12 November 44 upon receipt of a message from the CG 103d Infantry Division. Our attached units were: 383rd Field Artillery Battalion, Company B, 328th Engineer Battalion, Company B, 328th Medical Battalion, Company C, 601st Tank Destroyer Battalion, Company B, 3rd Chemical Battalion, and Company C, 756th Tank Battalion.

Upon entry into combat, the strength of the 410th Infantry was 158 officers and 3024 enlisted men.

At 111530 November 44, the Regimental Commander directed Co B to move from its present location to occupy Hill No. 647 (380667) (Rambervillers) after dark, which was accomplished at 120500 November 44. At 111600 November 44, the CO approved recommendation of the 2nd Bn CO for occupation of LaBolle with one platoon reinforced with a light machine gun section from Co G, plus one heavy machine gun section from Co H. The Regimental Commander was informed by the CO 3rd Bn that Challet had been occupied by one and one-half platoons of Co L and a light machine gun section and one platoon of heavy machine guns from CoM. At this time all units of the 30th Infantry had been relieved except for the elements of their Co L at LaBolle. Complete relief was to be effected after dark.

On the 12th of November 44 we had our first contact with tanks. During this day, four tanks were observed and neutralized by artillery fire. Enemy machine gun fire which was reported coming into the areas of Co's A and C, was knocked out by artillery fire. All elements of the 30th Infantry were relieved on this date.

On the 13th of November 44, the 3rd Bn reconnoitered the Taintrux River and reported that foot troops could cross the river 400 yards south of the village at Challet.

On the 14th of November 44, the 3rd Bn sent a patrol to the village of Les Moitraisses and reported finding enemy dead in the village but no enemy resistance. Also, they reported six large unoccupied buildings in the center of the town as well as many land mines. The Taintrux River was reconnoitered to a point 300 yards NE of the bridge crossing at Les Moitraisses by a patrol and reported it to be 10 to 15 feet wide and from 2 to 4 feet deep; approaches marshy; banks muddy; rate of flow--swift. They reported further that the bridge was apparently not mined and that foot troops could ford the river.

On the 14th of November 44 the 3rd Bn was ordered to place a combat outpost at positions to cover the bridge SE of Les Moitraisses on the Taintrux River to prevent demolition by hostile troops. Company B, 328th Engineer Bn, attached men to our 3rd Bn patrol after dark to further determine the presence of demolitions. On this day Cannon Co destroyed an outpost and dispersed hostile personnel at (37826332). Hostile SP gun was observed by Co E at (39736517) and personnel were dispersed by artillery fire. 2nd and 3rd Bns, 411th Infantry, moved into positions to the rear of 2nd and 3rd Bns, 410th Infantry, at dark. 2nd and 3rd Bns, 411th Infantry, passed through our battalions at 0900 and 410th battalions remained in place and supported the advance of the 411th Infantry with fire. Our 1st Bn REmained in position to protect the north flank of the Division.

At 161330 November 44, the 2nd Bn reported that the attack of the 411th Infantry was held up by an enemy machine gun in a house in Co E area. Artillery fire was laid down and the attack progressed. At 1600, two companies of the 411th were held up by machine guns in a house at (388639). Artillery was brought upon it and 3rd Bn reported that the machine guns had been neutralized. While E and G companies of the 411th Infantry were between the Taintrux River and the road to St. Die, thirty men of Co K were dug in west of the Taintrux and the ballance of the Company dug in behind our Company I. 2nd Bn reported two 77 long self-propelled guns at (V404665). Artillery fire was brought on these guns and it was believed that one gun was knocked out. Later, the 2nd Bn reported that the second 77 SP fired on the 411th Infantry's north flank and our artillery fire was believed to have knocked it out. Smoke was effective later on Hill 468 at (4167). At 170920 our 2nd and 3rd Bns were alerted to be prepared to move back to the draw southwest of the spiderweb.

On 17 November 44 plans were prepared to assemble one or more battalions in the vicinity of Challet to move NE to St. Die. Reports were that the elements of the 411th Infantry were moving forward steadily with little opposition. The CG instructed the Regimental Commander to start vigorous patrolling at once and to determine if the pimple at LaBihay was occupied by friendly troops, and if not, to occupy it. At 2330, the 2nd Bn reported that no friendly company was on the pimple, so they placed four squads with a light machine gun attached there. Co C reported that patrols went to the vicinity of LaChenile and to the Meurthe River and drew no enemy fire. Co A patrol fired various weapons in the vicinity west of LaPecherie and drew no enemy fire.

1st Bn reconnaissance on the afternoon of 18 November 44 reported that the footbridge at (393685) was partially destroyed. Division ordered that aggressive reconnaissance be made on the other side of the Meurthe River that night; also, that all troops south of LaMenatille would be pulled out and assembled after being relieved by elements of the 411th Infantry by 191000 November 44.

At 190445 November 44 1st Bn reported that a patrol from Co C had crossed the Meurthe River at a point fifty yards north of the junction of the Taintrux and the Meurthe Rivers. This patrol reported that the hill at Tete de St Roch was occupied by Germans and that they had actually seen twenty-nine. At noon, elements of the 411th Infantry had not relieved our forces at LaBihay or south of LaMenantille.

On the morning of 20 November 44, the 3rd Division was successful in forcing a crossing of the Meurthe River in the vicinity of Biarville - Dayfosse, thus penetrating the prepared enemy defenses on the east bank of the Meurthe. As a result of this action, the Corps ordered the 103d Div less elements of the 411th Infantry to prepare to cross the Meurthe immediately. The 410th Infantry was ordered to march by motor to assembly areas in the vicinity of LaSalle and while the Regiment was enroute, the Regimental Commander received orders to have his entire unit across the river by 0200 21 November 44 in order to attack in a southeasterly direction at dawn. The purpose of this order was to effect relief of elements of the 7th Infantry pushing forward in the vicinity of LaVoivre so that they could rejoin the 3rd Division driving due east toward Saales. Our mission was to protect the south flank of the drive to the east by occupying the high ground north and east of St. Die and continuing east through the Vosges Mountains.

The Regiment moved forward on foot to assembly areas in the vicinity of Biarville and successfully effected a crossing of the Meurthe during the hours of darkness attacking to the east and southeast on the morning of the 21st, capturing the Hill Mass north of St. Die. At 211200 November 44, our 2nd Bn reached Phase Line No. 2. At 1705, our 1st Bn passed Marzelay. 1st Bn objective was consolidated at 1810. 2nd Bn occupied the towns of Culotte, Ponts des Raides, and Robache, after overcoming enemy resistance, at 1800. Attack continued again at 220734. 1st Bn continued to the east and 3rd Bn passed between 1st and 2nd Bns at 0900 to capture Hill Mass S. Primary mission was the seizure of phase line C in their zone of action. At 221026 November 44, Co L was pulling into the tip of the woods at (424670) and moved due east. By noon, the 3rd Bn had reached the line (431665-448679), 1st Bn had reached a line 5000 yards east of La Vigne Henry, 2nd Bn reserve was ordered to move to the woods at (427670) when an advance of 1st Bn and 3rd Bn made this possible. 2nd Bn prepared to move toward St. Die. A platoon of AT Co was attached to the 1st Bn prior to the attack.

At 221210 Co's K and L were 3500 yards east of Robache. At 1350, 2nd Bn was being assembled to go into St. Die. At 1530, Co's A and B had passed La Vigne Henry and reached a line just west of Dijon and Gratin. By 1610, Cn Co (V401686) drew heavy artillery and mortar fire. At 1640, Co B had taken Gratin after overcoming considerable resistance. At 1645, the 3rd Bn had reached a line in the woods west of Nayemont. This battalion had encountered stiff resistance all day. 2nd Bn was still in Division reserve. At 230835 November 44, our new CP opened at Marzelay. At 1039 the 1st Bn jumped off and at 1200 took Dijon after overcoming heavy enemy opposition.

At 231800 November 44, the 3rd Bn occupied Nayemont with little opposition and occupied Frapelle at 1600. Shortly afterward Le Pair et Grandrupt and Nevillers were occupied by the 1st Bn on the S Zone. Co G, in the Regimental Reserve, moved at noon from the woods NE of Marzelay to the woods east of Robache. During the night 3rd Bn crossed the Fave River in the vicinity of Frapelle and crossed on the far bank at 0300--continued its advance occupying the entire Regimental zone. Lusse was by-passed with assault company and was attacked by reserve Co L. By daylight 24 November 44, 3rd Bn occupied phase line E. Shortly after 0300 1st Bn crossed the river in the vicinity of Frapelle, deployed with two companies abreast, completed the capture of Lusse and Hill 477 NW of Lusse by 1200. By noon, Co G occupied its new reserve position on the high ground in the vicinity of Charemont (4066). One Mortar Platoon of Co B, 3rd Chemical Bn, which was attached to our 1st Bn, was displaced in close support of the 1st Bn.

At 241600 November 44, our 1st Bn liberated LaParlee, which was occupied by an estimated 300 enemy of a Cossack Battalion. At 1851, our 2nd Bn was alerted for possible movement, and at 2200 left Frapelle to launch an attack to the east. At 0905, the 2nd Bn reported enemy small arms fire at (580660). At 0925 the 3rd Bn jumped off in the vicinity of Ordon, making the formation: 2nd, 1st, and 3rd Bns. At noon, our 2nd Bn reported at Pre Maigrot followed by the 1st and 3rd Bns respectively meeting little enemy resistance. A tank platoon was attached to the 2nd Bn at 1155 on this day. 1st Bn crossed phase line G at 1515 and captured Fouchy by 1745.

The Commanding General ordered that we take Ville on 26 November and that we try to take prisoners. We were reinforced by one battalion of the 409th. When the attack had progressed, our battalion which was holding Fouchy was relieved by a battalion of the 409th, whereupon our battalion moved on toward Ville. At 1545, Company C entered Ville after road-blocks were cleared by our attached engineers and the artillery was knocked out.

On 27 November 44, the 1st Bn advanced on Albe and captured that town after heavy resistance at 1600. We outposted on high ground around Albe. 3d Bn followed the 1st Bn and occupied high ground north-east of Ville and later the 2d Bn followed the 3d Bn and occupied high ground north of Ville. All battalions were on the march before daylight of the 28th and moved toward Eichhoffen. At 1000, the 1st Bn was at (708726) after overcoming enemy resistance (V702725). 2d Bn was following the 1st Bn at 1000 yards and at 1045, the 1st Bn passed phase line 3. The 2d Bn passed a road junction at Albe at noon. 3d Bn met heavy enemy resistance in the woods (V715715) and was still fighting to clear the woods of enemy.

At 281313 2d Bn foot troops cleared Albe. 3d Bn engaged the enemy at a road block north of Triembach but moved on and at 1330 were at (715715). At 1410, the head of the 1st Bn was at Bernardville near phase line No. 4, and the 2d Bn was between phase lines 3 and 4. At 1913, the 3d Bn occupied Hohworth. At 2025, the 1st Bn was at a road block west of Itterswiller with the 2d Bn behind them at (728740). 2d Bn patrols received heavy fire from the vicinity of Reichsfeld. Co. F entered Reichsfeld and the town was captured by the 2d Bn at 0930. 1st Bn attacked at 0900 while the 3d Bn was still at Hohworth. 1st Bn received a heavy counter-attack from the direction of Nothalten, the enemy using infantry, artillery, and tanks, At 1030, the 2d Bn was pulled back to assist the 1st Bn. At 1100, the 1st Bn was on a hill at (765737) and the 3d Bn was preparing to move up to assist. At noon, Co B was moving into Itterswiller, Co C was in the woods south of Bernardville, A Co at(751735) digging in, G Co at Reichsfeld and the remainder of the 2d Bn at approximately (742728).

At 301246, November 44, Co B moved into Itterswiller. At 1250 on this day, a strong enemy counter-attack drew our I and L Companies back from the road junction at (V744719) into the woods at (V728715). At 1945, Co E received a counter-attack which they threw back. At 300050, two German tanks raided our C Co CP and took some prisoners--approximately 40. The 2d Bn attacked toward Nothalten at 1100 and at noon were on Hill 393. By noon, 30 November 44, the 410th Infantry had liberated the town of Reichsfeld and was continuing the attack towards their objective. Co I was assigned the occupation of Blienschwiller but due to heavy enemy resistance, dug in for the night and moved into the town the following day.

This concludes the operations for the month of November 1944.
