I, Amos Ewing, reported into the 103 Div on 25 January 1944 fresh out of OCS in Fort Benning and was assigned to the 411 INF and further assigned to CO I. First LT Marlin Kenee was CO. The first job I was assigned to was to take the company out to the transition range. One man took his position on the firing line with his page of instructions anchored with rocks on each corner. He did not fire a single round. As can be expected, I pulled him off the line for a later order and explained what he was supposed to do. Then I asked him why he had not read the instructions that had been passed out the night before. He straightened up and looked me directly in the eyes and said, "Sir, I cannot read!" (As a result of that meeting, I ended up volunteering to help teach men like that.) When I explained to the man how the transition range operated, he went back on the firing line and fired a possible by putting on one round in each target.

For some reason we had a Saturday afternoon free. So Marlin and I went up to the Division Officers Club to eat lunch. After a few beers we kind of forgot about lunch. Later from the balcony where we were, we noticed a receiving line being organized so we decided to leave. On the way out we slid down the stair bannister and managed to take down the receiving line and in the ensuing confusion we escaped.

My home was in Dallas and my father was in the oil business so I worked in the oil fields east of Gainesville in the summer and had friends in Gainesville I went to visit one night. I was walking down a street with no street lights some blocks off the main street. All of a sudden, a spot light hit me in the face and a voice out of the dark said "What is your name, rank and unit?" You got it...the saluting patrol. A soldier passed on the other side of the street going in the other direction and I did not return his salute. The fact that I did not see him or hear him. Had no bearing. The fine I paid.

The SOP of the 103 was "Saluting when you should be shooting when the rest of the divisions are overseas." Speaking of "overseas" that is, my orders were date 20 April 1944. Also on those orders appeared the following names:
Capt Clifford T. Hackard
2nd Lt Floyd C Ehrensberg (KIA)
1st Lt Marvin N. Keith, Jr. (KIA)
2nd Lt Charles F. McCord, III
we all ended up together in the same shipment company in Fort George G. Meade, Maryland.

By mistake the army shipped 30,000 troops to Camp Patrick Henry, Virginia instead of 3000 troops. There was only housing and rations for about half of us so we stayed 3 nights in the barracks eating class A rations then we slept 3 nights in pup tents in the woods and ate K and cold C-rations. My platoon got in a fight with a paratroop platoon.

McCord, Keith and I got drunk one night and found, started and drove a bulldozer up on a coal pile and in trying to back it up, dropped the blade on the shower house. There was an officers call the next afternoon and we were all advised the command knew who did it but if the officers would report themselves, the consequences would be much lighter. I guess they are still waiting, as we all shipped out to Camp Kilmer, New Jersey two days later.

McCord had gone to Princeton so he knew his way around New York. we went into New York and met his mother and his sister and Mac's girlfriend at the Storck Club. After drinks and dinner his mother went on her way and we went to "Leon and Eddies". (Wild Man! Wild!) Of course, we got dragged into the floor show.

We shipped out and landed in Liverpool. McCord, Keith and I got all the way to an open air replacement center just off Omaha Beach. There Keith and I went into the 35 Div 134 INF 3 BW. I went to I Co and Keith went to K Co. He was killed on 29 July. I was wounded 3 times on 30 July and evacuated by air to England. To make a long story short, I returned to the 35 Div, 134 INF and given the Recon Company which I commanded until I was blown up by a land mine early in November and was evacuated by air to Paris, train to Le Harve them by boat to England. I ended up staying in England at a place called Tidworth in Southern England. After VE Day we progressed units going stateside. It was at this time I ran into two of my original Camp House 1st platoon squad leaders. I though one was Sgt Coe but Kenee told me Sgt Coe got a battle field commission. Sgt White from the weapons platoon lived near Dallas and I contacted him several times but afte I was recalled to active duty in January of 1952, I did not get back to the Dallas area much.

The most unusual story is how Kenee and I re-met. I got recalled back on active duty when Korea broke out and was posted to the 7th army in Germany in the summer of 1952. Shortly afterwards during the Octoberfest in Munich I was sent down there to an orientation course. One of the officers I shared a state room with on the way to Germany was posted to the NCO Academy in Munich. I went out to see him and Kenee was his next door neighbor...We have kept in touch ever since.
