

CPL HARRY W. MORRISON, Jr - (DOW)

409th, E-Company

Born May 5, 1925, Morrison was inducted into the service on November 5th, 1943. Morrison was a member of the 409th, E-Company. He was serving as a squad leader when he was wounded on December 14th, 1944, near Bremmelbach, France. He later died of those wounds.

CPL Morrison was initially interred at the temporary military cemetery located at Hochfelden, France until he was returned to the US and buried at Evergreen Cemetery in his hometown of Osborn, Missouri on December 5th, 1948.

He was 19 years old.