Mr. Martin,

I appreciate your time. It was nice to speak with you today. As I mentioned to you, I located Sgt. Alvin Wilken and spoke with him by phone. He believed most of these soldiers were assigned to the 103d Infantry Division, 411th Regiment, 2nd Battalion, Rifle Co. G, possibly 3rd Platoon.

I did limited research into the whereabouts today. The homes you see listed were what they wrote on the flag in WWII. You will see a couple of notations in parentheses indicating when they died or where they live now.

My Grandfather was S/Sgt. Archie A. Wilkins. He lived near Oxford, NC and retired as Chief of Police of Oxford in 1979. He passed away April 4, 2002.

I will submit some photos of my Grandfather and the flag in a sequence of emails (since one email can't sustain many photos). Any information you have regarding the reunion will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,

Jeremy Hammond
